Stalwarts of SEC - 8

Zarin Havewala

Zarin's journey is as diverse as it is inspiring.

A postgraduate in Banking, she once aspired to join the Ladies Cricket team, pursued a two-year art course at the prestigious Sir J. J. School of Art, and has excelled in music and drama, winning prizes in both.

An animal lover and connoisseur of Indian and Western music, she has also made her mark as a car rally driver, winning several accolades. Her involvement in Parsi Matrimony has touched several lives, with an impressive record of facilitating 117 marriages so far.

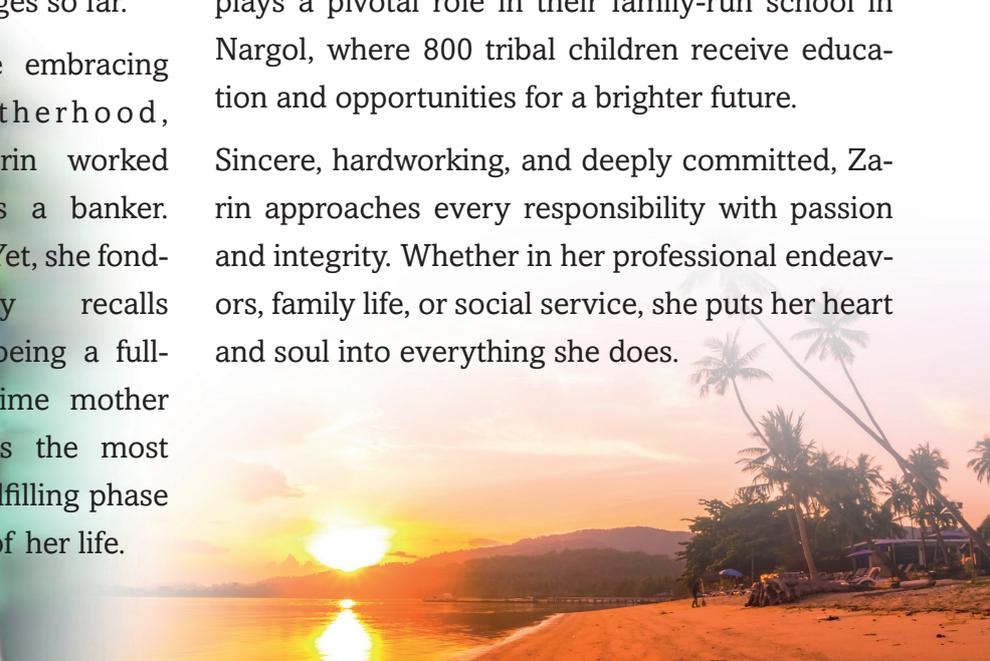

Before embracing motherhood, Zarin worked as a banker. Yet, she fondly recalls being a full-time mother as the most fulfilling phase of her life.

Today, she continues to balance her family commitments with her passion for community service. A devoted wife, mother of two, and grandmother to a lively 3½-year-old, Zarin embodies the essence of a complete family person.

Since 1997, Zarin has dedicated herself to social causes. She actively serves at Parukh Dharamshala Old Age Home, contributes through the Inner Wheel Club of Bombay, and as Vice President of SEC, oversees sponsorships and organizes sports and entertainment programs for students.

Together with her husband Hoshang, she also plays a pivotal role in their family-run school in Nargol, where 800 tribal children receive education and opportunities for a brighter future.

Sincere, hardworking, and deeply committed, Zarin approaches every responsibility with passion and integrity. Whether in her professional endeavors, family life, or social service, she puts her heart and soul into everything she does.
